About this property

A nice water view is what many vacation homes in Cape Coral offer, but Villa Taronga can, without exaggeration, claim an absolute million-dollar-view. The luxurious property is located in the SW part of town on a large corner lot and overlooks four Gulf access canals that intersect right at this spot. The view from the pool area, as well as from almost every room, is simply breathtaking.

Villa Taronga is a spacious home with 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms plus a separate den. The modern concept combines the common living areas into one space □ living room, kitchen and dining room (each with fabulous water views) are seamlessly connected. The remarkable dark wood kitchen includes a large breakfast bar. Each room is an impressive showcase for tasteful contemporary style furnishing with hand-selected decorative accents that catch your eye without being obtrusive.

On the covered patio, you will find a summer kitchen with grill and a second dining area. Pool and spa have an electric heater. Next to the pool, there is ample space to set up the lounge chairs and take in the spectacular water views. Relaxation is what it□ all about at Villa Taronga. Noticeable is the pool cage - huge screens allow an almost unobstructed view of the water all around.

The private boat dock features a large Tiki hut and not only serves as the place to keep a rental boat, but also as the perfect spot for a get-together in the evening around the fire pit. The days in Florida could not end on a better note.
