About this property

This new holiday home is well-equipped with tasteful and comfortable furniture everywhere. It is situated at the end of a small cul-de-sac in a quiet holiday home area. From the large terrace which is facing south, you can enjoy the beautiful surroundings in peace and quiet. The house is practical and suitable for two families. The area has many activity possibilities such as a water world tennis, golf and fishing. In the house there is a heating pump which regulates the temperature, so in the summer time it is working as air condition and in the winter time as heating facility. From 20 of April 2005 there is free internet access (But you have to bring you own pc with you). Danish tv-program.
