About this property

The holiday house De Kirko in old-pilioritic style is in a beautiful, idyllic hillside location, just outside the historical village Milies, in a calm setting between gardens, dense chestnut and oak trees directly above the bay of Pagassitikos. The holiday house is ideal for nature lovers who seek tranquility and like hiking. The rustically furnished summer house was built in 1867, completely renovated in 1989 and partly renovated in spring 2015. On the ground floor there is the living/dining area with a stove, open kitchen area and direct access to the terrace and garden. From the ground floor a wooden staircase leads to the upper floor – the attic door can be used to separate both floors if necessary. On the upper floor there is an open bed-/living room area with a fireplace and a bathroom. The upper floor can also be accessed via an external staircase. There is direct access to a roofed terrace. A small, paved, partly steep path leads to the house (approx. 5 min by foot)
